

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Councilmen Berry, Burger and Smith, in company with Marshal Blankenship, are preparing to raid the back yards and alleys of Phoenix during the next few days and will use all efforts to place the city in sound sanitary condition.

The Phoenix Base Ball Club has received from the Tucson club, notification to the effect that a nine from that city will be in attendance at the Territorial fair, to contest in the games for the championship of the Territory. The only proviso is that the expense of the visiting club shall be provided. This the local base ball experts are more than willing to do, and a series of interesting games is now guaranteed. It is hoped that Prescott and Tombstone will also send nines.

A year ago a young man named D. B. Fuller died in this city of consumption. His remains were embalmed and shipped by express to Paris, Tex., to his relatives. It seems that there was, in some manner, a delay of twenty-four hours en route and the body was not received until the next day after that on which the funeral had been appointed. A short time ago the father of the deceased filed in the proper court at Paris a suit against Wells, Fargo & Co. for $10,500, damages for the delay en route and the consequent laceration of complainant's feelings. Several depositions in the case were taken yesterday in the office of the Clerk of the District Court.

THE GOLDEN EAGLE MINE.

Plaintiffs Win the Ejectment Suit Tried in Yuma.

The famous Hubbard-Horne suit, for the possession of the Golden Eagle Mine, Harque Hala, came to a termination Tuesday evening in the District Court at Yuma. The case was argued and submitted to the jury, who, after an absence of three hours, returned a verdict for the plaintiffs, fixing damages to be paid by defendant at $2500. A motion for a new trial was at once made and promptly overruled. A notice of appeal was then given.

The action was a hotly contested one. There was much preliminary sparring between the parties at the last term of Court in Phoenix, where Hubbard et al. were denied an injunction against Horne.

The trial of the ejectment suit was begun at Yuma September 23 and was stoutly fought by Messrs. Churchill, Barnes and Campbell for the plaintiff, and Street and Alexander for defendants.
